

DITION FEST

The Annual Dog Gone Dition Festival is a Back-To-School Event held on the first Saturday in the month of August. This Event promotes “Silence the Violence-Increase the Peace”, in the renowned Washington Addition (Dog Gone Dition), community which begins at 12 Noon-9 p.m.! However, we encourage everyone to remain vigilant to all safety measures relevant to COVID-19, as set by our local and state officials, in accord. Safety components are presentations for the public at this event. The primary focus and meaning of the “Dog Gone Dition Festival” is to provide complementary “school supplies” to children who may be less fortunate than others, to promote the support of equitable access to the educational process.

Lawn chairs, coolers and tents are welcome-NO GRILLS, DOGS or ATVs, PLEASE!! ABSOLUTELY NO VENDORS are present or solicited! There will be FREE, FREE, FREE, FOOD & WATER, as it last. Moreover, there will be children’s activities, “Live entertainment” guest speakers and various memorabilia issued, by sponsors,

Security will be provided by The Jackson Police Department and The Hinds County Sheriff’s Office, as any aberrancy shall be handled in accord. Janice (“Miz Wild”), and Rander (“Randy Wildman Brown”), wholeheartedly THANK ALL OF YOU IN ADVANCE, for the ongoing success of this year’s Annual Event. “May GOD Bless You, Indeed”!!
